

Ekin Tunçeli is a dance artist who creates contemporary dance-based productions. Beside being choreographer, she is a contemporary dancer, singer, actress and performer. She graduated from Faculty of Medicine and has BA in Contemporary Dance from MSGSU Contemporary Dance Department, which makes her creations both analytic and initiative. She explores choreographic elements with an understanding of interdisciplinary approach, blends familiar and unusual with using objects and popular images. Her solo piece “bir şey” has been selected as Twenty20 by Aerowaves. She has been selected as winner for #KültürdeKadınGücü grant, and her work “thinkerbell postcovid” is shown in WOW Festival İstanbul by British Council. She had scholarship from flausen+ for “Die Nachforschungen der Rut Blot” research. She has worked with Beyhan Murphy, TalDans, Clement Layes, Aslı Bostancı, Gizem Aksu, Fatih Gençkal, Harriet Plewis as a performer. She is a former member of the Bogazici Jazz Choir and still works as choreographer with them. www.ekintunceli.com
